CONSTITUTION

(Revised Effective June 12, 2005; amended 5/3/08 and 5/2/09)

PREAMBLE:

The ministry of Jesus was extended toward all whom he touched. He walked with, taught, and loved the common people of the street. He showed compassion and healing toward those who suffered at the city gate. He wept over the plight of Jerusalem. He endured the injustice and torture of city magistrates. The focus of his compassion was the salvation of the metropolis – the whole people.

Through the power of the resurrection of Jesus Christ, we believe that we are invited to bring the love, justice and peace of God to our metropolis, without counting the cost. We believe we are commissioned by God's Spirit to carry further the mandate of Christ; preach good news to the poor, proclaim release to the captives, bring recovery of sight to the blind; set at liberty those who are oppressed and proclaim the year of the Lord's favor. For these purposes, in the hope of God's new realm to come and in our diversity, we are joined in holy covenant to be the Chicago Metropolitan Association of the Illinois Conference of the United Church of Christ.

As an association of the United Church of Christ, the Chicago Metropolitan Association aspires to be a multi-racial, multi-cultural, open and affirming, peace with justice expression of the denomination, accessible to all.

MISSION GOALS:

Responding to the call of the Gospel, the Chicago Metropolitan Association seeks to:

Empower Congregations:

By nurturing, strengthening and resourcing congregations and ministries, enabling them to be faithful stewards in their mission to proclaim the Gospel as viable and responsive church bodies in their respective neighborhoods, towns and cities.

Support a Ministry of Clergy and Lay Persons:

By raising up and sustaining capable leaders of vision and integrity to serve the local and global church, including preparation for ordained ministry and serving as agents of mediation and reconciliation.

Sustain a Collective Voice for Social Witness:

By encouraging the study, proclamation and living of justice and peace in the Church and in the world.

In order to carry out its witness to the Gospel, the Association will provide direct consultations; participate in celebrations and healings; communicate information; provide liaison and linkage with congregations, the wider church, and with our ecumenical partners; foster mediation and reconciliation; support the ministerial search and call process; serve as a place for discussion, networking, and action; and maintain partnerships with historically-related United Church of Christ institutions in the Chicago metropolitan area.

ARTICLE I - NAME

The name of this Association shall be the CHICAGO METROPOLITAN ASSOCIATION of the Illinois Conference of the United Church of Christ. Recommendations on these matters are made by the Church and Ministry Committee to the Association Council. ATTACHMENT A

ECCLESIASTICAL COUNCILS

The United Church of Christ provides that Associations ordain candidates for ministry. Persons prepare themselves for ordination through study (including Master of Divinity) and prayer (including membership in a local church which sponsors the candidate).

The official context for ascertaining a candidate's fitness for ministry is the Ecclesiastical Council which is convened by the Cluster of the candidate's home church on behalf of the entire Chicago Metropolitan Association. Voting Delegates to the Ecclesiastical Council include all Chicago Metropolitan Association ordained clergy and licensed ministers plus delegates selected by each local church in CMA.

Process

1. Setting the Date: The ordination process begins after a candidate is approved for ordination by the CMA Committee on Church and Ministry. The candidate then notifies his or her local church pastor, and the pastor and candidate then contact the Dean of their Cluster and the CMA Association Co-Minister for that Cluster. Together they all coordinate a date for an Ecclesiastical Council.
2. Preparation: Once the date has been established, the candidate, with the help of his or her church, must inform all the other churches and non parish clergy in that Cluster. A copy of the candidate's ordination paper is sent to each church and to all non-parish clergy in the cluster. Each local church in the Cluster is responsible in turn for making copies of the ordination paper for its own lay delegates. The Cluster Dean should have extra copies of the ordination paper available at the Ecclesiastical Council for others that may attend. The candidate and his or her church should also inform the Deans of the other CMA clusters. It is the responsibility of the other Deans to inform their churches and non-parish clergy about the Ecclesiastical Council.
3. Quorum: The Ecclesiastical Council truly represents an attempt to have Association-wide support for a candidate considering ordination. As in other Association meetings, all clergy with standing in CMA and lay delegates from each church with standing in CMA are eligible to vote. A quorum requires that at least one lay delegate from each of at least one-third of the churches within the host Cluster be present, or that at least one lay delegate from each of 12 churches in other Clusters and one clergy from each of 12 churches in other clusters be present. It is the responsibility of the candidate's church to secure a quorum.
4. The Ecclesiastical Council meeting: All clergy and lay delegates should register and receive voting cards. The Cluster Dean or a representative from the Committee on Church and Ministry should introduce the candidate. The Cluster Dean moderates the meeting. After the candidate is introduced, he or she should be invited to summarize his or her faith journey and statement on theology to the Council.

A period of questioning follows regarding the theology presented the submitted ordination paper, and the candidate's readiness for ministry. Some areas usually highlighted for candidate response are:

- a. The Bible- What is it for you? the church? the Christian community? What is "God's Word"? Is there "universal truth" in the Bible?
- b. Knowledge of the wider church.
- c. The candidate's understanding of her or his ministry's impact on the local church.
- d. What challenges does the United Church of Christ present?
- e. What opportunities for celebration does the United Church of Christ present?
- f. Understanding of the sacraments. (The United Church of Christ recognizes baptism and the Lord's supper)
- g. Reflection on the UCC Statement of Faith
- h. Self care
- i. Reflection on the role of preaching in the ministry

A reasonable amount of time for questioning is one hour. Further time should be negotiated by the entire group.

5. The Decision: Following the period of questioning, the candidate and family are excused. In case there is no family present, the candidate should not be alone during the deliberation. A formal vote is then taken by the official delegates present. A three-fifths vote is required for approval. The candidate is invited back into the meeting to hear the results, and the meeting is closed in a circle of prayer.
6. Ordination Service Plans: The Cluster Dean or a designated person reports the decision to the CMA Association office. Plans for an ordination service must be worked out between the ordained, the Local Church, and the Association Co-Minister.
